Dear Mr. Stanton:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests of December 21, 2012 and January 21, 2013, respectively, requesting a list of all contractors and their known subcontractors who are performing or have performed work in the past for the 780th Military Intelligence Brigade and all of its subordinate units, as well as brief summaries of the nature of the work performed by each of said contractors. Your requests were received in this office on February 6, 2013.

Since additional time is needed to search for the records, we are unable to comply with the statutory 20-day time limit in processing your request. Therefore, you may consider this delay an administrative denial or you may agree to wait for a substantive reply upon completion of our coordination. Your agreement to waive the statutory time limit does not prejudice your right to appeal any releasability decision after it is made.

Major General Stephen G. Fogarty, the Commanding General, U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, is the Initial Denial Authority in this matter under the FOIA. You may appeal this decision to the Secretary of the Army. If you wish to file an appeal, you should forward it to this office. Your appeal must be postmarked no later than 60 calendar days from the date of this letter (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays). The mailing address is:
